The Fun-Set Social and Charity Club

Greetings!

We are thrilled to welcome you to the 38th Annual Beautillion Ball, hosted by The Fun-Set Social and Charity Club. As we celebrate the achievements of 40 remarkable young men, we are excited to explore the theme for this Beautillion Season, “Young Men of Excellence: Tomorrow’s Leaders Start Today!” This year's event promises to be a night to remember, filled with elegance, charm, and celebration of the young men who have accomplished so much.

The Beautillion Ball is a time-honored tradition that recognizes the hard work, dedication, and perseverance of young men of color in our community. It is a celebration of their accomplishments and a symbol of hope for their future. As we come together to honor these young men, we are reminded of the importance of community, support, and mentorship. We hope that this year's event will inspire and encourage our young men to continue to strive for excellence in all that they do.

We would also like to extend our sincerest gratitude to the village of individuals who have supported and mentored these young men along the way this Beautillion Season. Your contributions have been invaluable in helping to shape their futures and develop their potential. This evening, we celebrate not only the accomplishments of these young men but also the strength of our community and the bonds that unite us.

Thank you for being a part of this special evening. We look forward to celebrating with you.

Sincerely,

Jessica Caudle

*Mrs. Jessica Caudle
President, Fun-Set Social and Charity Club*

Our Speaker

Elder Jaymes R. Mooney

Elder Jaymes R. Mooney is a native of Nashville, Tennessee, and serves as the pastor of the historic Saint Bartley Primitive Baptist Church in Huntsville, Alabama, which is the oldest African-American congregation in the State of Alabama. In 2017 at the age of 27, he was selected as the ninth pastor in the congregation's 197-year history.

From 2013-2017, Elder Mooney served as the Senior Pastor of New Bethel Primitive Baptist Church of Fort Lauderdale, Florida. In 2011, he was a contributor to the book, Just Preach, Preaching the Word of God Primitive Baptist Style; his sermon, "We Faint Not" was featured in this anthology. His articles have been published in the Westside Gazette Newspaper, The Treveccan Journal, and Fuller Voices. He has been featured in articles by The Washington Post, The Miami Times, and The Tennessean. He was honored in January 2017, by Congresswoman Frederica Wilson, the 24th Congressional District of the State of Florida, for his leadership in outstanding community service.

During his time at Saint Bartley Primitive Baptist Church, the congregation has experienced significant spiritual and numerical growth. A full campus renovation was successfully completed in April 2019, along with the purchase of neighboring properties. In keeping with the vision of "Meeting Needs and Making Disciples", Elder Mooney has led the congregation to sow back a significant amount of its annual income into the community. In November 2019, he led the congregation in establishing "The Bartley Bridge," which is a 501C-3 non-profit organization focused on community transformation through education, exposure, and entrepreneurship. A mobile bakery, unity garden, and entrepreneurship academy for teens have already been started.

A lover of learning, Elder Mooney is a product of the Davidson County School System and Trevecca Nazarene University in Nashville, Tennessee. In June 2012, he was united in marriage to the love of his life and high school sweetheart, the former Victoria Cleaves. They have two daughters, Taylor Noelle and Raelyn. He is currently pursuing his doctorate degree at Howard University.

Narrator

Keneisha Leah Deas

Keneisha Leah Deas was born and raised in South Florida. She is the daughter of a math teacher, and a former Florida Highway Patrol trooper. She's also the older sister to two siblings, a sister and brother.

Keneisha finds her purpose and passion in connecting with people by telling their stories.

She's the Main Evening Anchor for FOX54 News in Huntsville, Alabama. Prior to working in the Rocket City Keneisha worked as an on-air Multimedia Journalist for an ABC-affiliate station in Panama City, Florida, and a News Writer for a FOX-affiliate station in Miami.

Keneisha loves to stay connected with her community outside of telling the news. She recently served as a candidate forum moderator for both 2022 mid-term and 2020 general elections, which consisted of municipal, state, and U.S. candidates running for office.

She also had the honor to serve as Mistress of Ceremonies for the Bay County chapter of the NAACP 2018's Black & Gold Essence Ball in Panama City.

Keneisha graduated from Howard University in Washington D.C., and earned her B.A. in Broadcast Journalism with a full-paid scholarship. There, she served as Metro Editor for the highly regarded student-run newspaper The Hilltop, interned at the CBS-Affiliate news station In D.C., and wrote for the Howard University News Service.

Keneisha also had the opportunity to interview the late Civil Rights Activist C.T. Vivian, and Feminist Gloria Steinem at the White House when then, President Barack Obama, honored the two along with Oprah Winfrey and Bill Clinton for the Medal of Freedom Ceremony in 2013.

Before attending Howard University, Keneisha earned her A.A. degree in Marketing Management at Broward College. She studied abroad in France after her freshman year and joined Phi Theta Kappa, and the Broward College Honors Institute Program.

She graduated from Design and Architecture Senior High School in Miami while taking fashion electives. During her senior year in high school, she revealed her collection for the senior fashion showcase.

Keneisha believes to always follow your heart, and pursue your dreams and God-given talent. Stay humble, yet hungry and keep God first.

Narrator

Ryan Patrick Parker

Association of American Medical Colleges.

Additionally, Ryan has worked professionally as an actor and singer in New York City and abroad—launched after a brief stint on American Idol as a Hollywood Semi-final contestant in 2004. Notable stage work includes: Tyler Perry's The Marriage Counselor; the off-Broadway production of If This Hat Could Talk—directed by Tony Award Winner George Faison—where he performed alongside Tony Award Winner Melba Moore and was featured in a duet with Grammy-Award Winner Stephanie Mills; as well as Disney Cruise Line and Norwegian Cruise Line. Most recently, he released his first debut gospel album entitled Push Through – This, Too, Shall Pass.

Ryan's contributions have been recognized by several national publications and organizations. He has been named among Diversity MBA Magazine's list of "Top 100 Executives Under 50"; Becker's Hospital Review's "Top 25 Leaders Under 40"; The Network Journal Magazine's "Forty Under 40"; Pittsburgh Magazine's "Forty Under 40"; The Pittsburgh Courier's "Fab 40"; and in 2016, he was inducted into the Boys and Girls Club of North Alabama Hall of Fame in Huntsville, Alabama.

Currently, Ryan serves as Vice President for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion for CGI—leading the diversity strategy for the United States market for one of the largest global IT companies in the world. He is a member of the Board of Directors for the Huntsville Ballet and a Life Member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated.

History Through the Years

Fun-Set Social & Charity Club

The Fun-Set Social and Charity Club was organized in Huntsville, Alabama in 1966, by a small group of African-American women. The former years were designed to provide social interaction among the women. However, after several years, the members' desire for community service increased. From this humble beginning, the club changed its name from the Fun-Set Social Club to the Fun-Set Social & Charity Club. The primary focus is youth, especially the African-American male.

The members' desire to save our youth began with support and attention to the success of young black males through Education Seminars that focus on spiritual, social, educational, and economical growth. As a result, the Beautillion evolved. This is an annual social event that recognizes and honors young black men who are high school juniors and seniors.

Monetary support to charitable organizations and scholarship awards are gained through the Beautillion Ball held annually in November. The ball is a culmination of educational seminars and fun follies. Through the years, the club has presented more than 1,000 young African-American men.

Some of the club's most notable challenge speakers include:

Artur Davis (Former United States Congressman, Alabama's 7th District)

Joseph C. Phillips (Actor: "The Cosby Show", "Strictly Business", professor at Clarke Atlanta University)

Benita Brooks (Miss Alabama)

Charles Brown (Sydney on the TV show "Here and Now" with Malcolm Jamal Warner)

Curtis Duncan (Wide Receiver for the Houston Oilers)

Condredge Holloway (Canadian Football League)

Chris Martin (Kansas City Chiefs)

Vernon Winfrey (Father of Oprah Winfrey)

Sundiata Alaye (Executive Director of the Minority HIV/AIDS Coalition, Washington, D.C.)

Hank Sanders (Alabama State Senator – District 23)

Christopher England (Alabama State Representative – District 70)

Rockwell Metcalf, Esq. (Vice President, American Express)

Today, a group of dynamic African -American women lead this organization by providing community service into the new millennium.
